

Hey, James here and you probably guessed I'm at the snow today and yes, we do have snow in Australia.

Are you getting the results that you want? Is the life that you're living what you envisioned? Are you happy with it? Because at the midway point during the year, it's a great time to have a look at these things and if you're not happy, then do something about it.

James here with a ski update. Things are going well; exhausting but fun.

So here we are in the chair lift on the way back up to the top and it is just a beautiful day here.

Learning To Ski

You know learning to ski is a lot like Internet marketing. It can be difficult, it can be expensive, and it can get a lot further down the track if you have lessons. There will be times you feel like giving up but when you push through, it's absolutely worth it. So have a think about how this applies to your business.

Skiing and business have much in common

I'd Love To Help You

If you happen to have an online business, I'd love to help you. Right now, you can join either FastWebFormula.com where I'll coach you everyday, or SilverCircle.com if you have a six- or seven-figure business. That's where I can get significant results for you as I have with others. Then you'll be able to get what you want.

So what do you think about that? Perhaps place a comment right near this video about what you are going to do to change the rest of your year from now. I look forward to reading and responding to your comments. I'm James Schramko.
